Wins A Scholarship

Son of Ex-Mayor M. M. Daggett Making Good In Auburn (Mass.) H. S.

Editor of The Courier-Gazette:—
"Charles F. Ross, principal of the Auburn, Mass., High School, received a notice from Dean Howe of Worcester Tech. that a half scholarship of $150 has been awarded Stanley Daggett, who will graduate from Auburn High in June. Daggett is very active in sports and other extra-curricular activities and ranks high in his studies. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Daggett, Wethered street."

The above clipping may interest the former friends of Horace Daggett, now living in Auburn. Stanley is a superior young man, a credit to his family, friends and school. Here in Auburn we are very proud of Stanley's work in school. That he received any recognition from Worcester "Tech" speaks very high of his character and ability. He is a son of former Mayor W. M. Daggett. In this same mail is a Worcester Telegram, in which Representative Sleeper receives more honorable mention. His remarks surely set the press working overtime for a while. More power to him! He has made the country clam chowder conscious.
We still look forward to the old home paper—The Courier-Gazette—and wish all connected with it the best of everything.

Philip Malpas, Pianist, Comes To Rockland Concert with Francis Havener

The pianist who will play and accompany Francis Havener at his concert is Philip Malpas of Detroit, Mich. He was born in Coventry, England, came to this country in 1921 and graduates this June 1 from a three-year course at Peabody. He majored on piano with Alexander Sklarevski, is 20 years old and a wonderful player.

Francis Havener Jr. is taking a course of four years at the Peabody Institute, which gives him a D.D.B. degree of music and he is majoring on the voice with Frank Bibb as his teacher.

Francis graduated in 1936 from Rockland High School where he attained musical honors in the Glee Club and Orchestra and minstrel shows. He is a high ranking student at Peabody. With a long range baritone voice he is in demand at all school functions and is soloist at the Lutheran Church in Baltimore each Sunday. He is 21 years old and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis E. Havener of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Malpas are motoring through with the boys to visit Maine for the first time and are looking ahead to a very delightful visit.

Leonard Ouellette of Augusta told an interesting story of the training and skill of his "seeing eye" dog at yesterday's luncheon of the Rotary Club. "Sport" a German shepherd dog, and his master are inseparable and together they presented a program which was much enjoyed. Frank E. Morrow of Camden was the only visiting Rotarian. Danny Patt acted as pianist for the day.

And Most Beautiful Service Station In New England Replaces Old Carriage Factory

If an award for civic improvement in 1939 were to be made it would unquestionably go to ex-mayor Albert C. McLoon and the Texas Company for the demolition of the huge, unsightly Nye carriage factory building on Main street and

It was a year ago that the Mc-

After—This is the same lot as above today—believe it or not.

Loon interests acquired the Nye property and immediately razed the century old six story structure, thus eliminating one of Rockland's major fire hazards. A great rock fill was required in order to set the new structure well back from the street and it was even necessary to put an eight foot fill under the floor of the present basement, the foundations going 25 feet to bed rock. The new station in gleaming white cararra glass and forest green exterior, with Texaco red lettering giving the plant its distinguishing name "Park" makes a beautiful picture. The 30 foot drive of bituminous macadam takes care

Venetian blinds in matching green and floors in handsome linoleum give the finishing touches. The furniture is modernistic chrome and leather. Men's room adjoining and is done in green asbestos tile. The women's rest room is entered from the street side and is distinctively furnished with modernistic make-up table, mirrors, etc.

[EDITORIAL]
SIZING 'EM UP

The American Institute of Public Opinion has been sounding out the strength of Cordell Hull, Secretary of State, as a Presidential possibility and finds that the Tennessee statesman would apparently make a very good run. Voters asked to express a preference between Dewey, the Republican, and Hull, the Democrat, expressed themselves as 52 percent in favor of the New York district attorney and 48 percent in favor of Hull. But if Cordell Hull were to run against Senator Taft, Republican, it would be a 50-50 proposition, according to the voters whose opinions were sought. The change in sentiment finds interesting reflection in the fact that 9 percent of those who voted for Alf M. Landon in 1936 would favor Hull today. 91 percent would favor Dewey. On the other hand only 72 percent of those who voted for Roosevelt in 1936 would vote for Hull in 1940, while 28 percent would vote for Dewey, a change of 19 percent in favor of the Republicans. The percentage gain is slightly smaller were Hull and Taft to be the opponents. A similar straw vote will be taken in connection with other candidates, and it will all be very interesting to watch.

AN OVERCROWDED PRISON

Conditions at the State Prison have become such under the present congestion that Warden Welch is seeking other ways of boarding his charges. The increase in the Prison's population is little short of alarming but perhaps it only reflects the free and easy spirit of the times. Rum was legislated within easy reach of the automobile driver, until he has become a greater menace on the public highways than the average drinking person could have thought possible. In prohibition days the press and the people heaped ridicule upon prohibition, bootlegging and graft were rampant, but never in its worst days did Prohibition offer such conditions as every fair-minded person will admit to now exist. Watch the prisons and the courts for proof.

MAINE INVITES YOU

"Maine Invites You." The 1939 edition is off the press and 1000 copies of it are being mailed each day from the office in Portland to all parts of the country and to foreign countries. The new edition comprises 50,000 copies and required 200 pounds of ink, and rich returns are expected. Harrie B. Coe, manager of the Maine Publicity Bureau, which is responsible for "Maine Invites You," says that last year about 40,000 copies were mailed direct in response to individual requests for information about vacationing in Maine. The other 10,000 copies were distributed through recognized travel organizations, automobile clubs, chambers of commerce and other groups. With the increase in individual requests received at the Publicity Bureau to date this year, there is every possibility that the entire 1939 issue will be mailed direct to individuals signifying their definite interest to come to Maine. Citizens of Maine will receive copies of "Maine Invites You" by writing to the Bureau, but then, for the good of the cause, mail your copy to some out-of-State prospective summer visitor with whom you have personal or business relations.

PEACE PRAYER SUNDAY

Gov. Lewis O. Barrows has granted the appeal of the W.C.T.U. and designated June 11 as "Peace Prayer Sunday." Deploing the tragic conditions in many foreign countries, and expressing the belief that the people of the United States are opposed to any war which is not in actual defense of our soil, the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union respectfully appeals for the observance of a day of prayer for peace. "In such a world emergency, and possibly a national one," the appeal states, "it would seem fitting that we implore the guidance of The Prince of Peace.... We plead that on this Day of Prayer, in churches, youth's groups, community meetings or in their homes, all people may join in supplication to the God of Nations that war be averted, that wars be waged may end, and that justice, security and peace be established among all Nations."

"The Black Cat"

By The Roving Reporter

Women's hats are legitimate targets for the wags, but it has remained for a St. Louis eye specialist to say that they are responsible for pulling traffic boners. He says that the type of hat which is pulled down over one eye is a driving hazard for any woman because it limits her field of vision at the wheel. She is telling the truth when she says, "I didn't see it coming."

The approaching commencement exercises of Rockland High School recalls another graduation which took place in the old Farwell Hall June 21, 1887, at which time the teachers were "Johnny" P. Marston, Jennie R. North and S. May Wood. The speakers and their subjects were: Salutatory, Lester S. Erskine; The New South, Fred J. Simon; "Borrowed Wings," Lena B. Griffith; "Indulgent Haste in Study," Annie M. Spear; "The True Policy," Frank M. Packard; "An Excursion to Bar Harbor," Helen L. Snow; class history, Frank C. Norton; "Echoes," Mabel A. Spring; "There Is Room At the Top," Ava L. Wood; "Labor," Ezekiel G. Nelson; "A Great Mistake," Carrie I. Jameson; class prophecy, Annie L. Crie; "Education of the Mind," Carrie E. Orbeton; "Our Navy," Charles M. Erskine; "Libraries," Carrie E. Winslow; "Rockland in 1887," Suzie R. Truworthy; "A Plea For College Education," J. P. Cilley, Jr.; valedictory, Ella F. Haskell.

One of the sad sights riding out through the country in almost any rural town, is the number of tottering barns and houses which are falling into decay. Most of these premises have been abandoned, but some are still occupied by farmers who pluckily refuse to abandon their homes.

Back in the 40's M. C. & O. S. Andrews kept a general store in East Thomaston. "A Jay Bee" has shown me a receipt for a bill of goods bought by Paul Boggs, one of the items being a box of "oranges" at a cost of $3.80. The place of business was located "at the brick store near Kimball's Corner." Naming a list of articles carried by the concern the bill head guarantees that they "will be sold as low as at any other store in the village."

It was my pleasure Thursday to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Horace P. Maxcy in Strong. Mr. Maxcy is principal of Strong High School, before which I was asked to give my lecture "The Children of Callander." The meeting was held at the close of school in the pretty little Foster Memorial Building. I was accompanied to Strong by Edward Gonis, and there were some motor adventures which would make quite an interesting story—but I will let Ed tell it. After the meeting we were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Maxcy and their young son at the Maxcy home which stands on a lofty eminence overlooking the Sandy River.

In the course of a brief sightseeing tour we were shown the toothpick factory which employs 250 persons while running at capacity, and which, I was told is the largest toothpick factory in the world. The concern uses white birch and buys nearly $50,000 worth a year. Another industry which helps keep Strong busy is a novelty factory. We were taken to the top of Norton's Hill, which commands a fine view, and from which we could see several snow-capped mountains.

Principal Maxcy, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Maxcy of this city, has a school of 123 pupils. I read a message of greeting from Walter Gay who succeeded him as principal of Warren High School.

One year ago, Allston Smith of Houlton was elected submaster of Rockland High School to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of John Durrell—Rev. Dr. Guy Wilson and wife were tendered a reception at Pratt Memorial M. E. Church—Mrs. Aurelia Bray was elected president of the Sunshine Society—Mrs. Orissa Merritt was elected president of the Scribblers' Club.

MRS. QUMBY INVITED

Mrs. Althea G. Quimby, president of the Maine W.C.T.U., has been invited to represent the United States at the 22d International Congress Against Alcoholism to be held at Helsinki, Finland, July 30 to Aug. 4. The Congress is under the patronage of the president of the Republic of Finland, Kyosti Kallio, and Mrs. Kallio and the invitation came from the president of the Congress, J. R. Siotemaker de Bruine. The invitation points out that Finland has behind her a long temperance history and today has the lowest per capita consumption of alcohol of any country in Europe.

POLITICS IN THE OFFING

Plans for Maine's 1940 political campaign will be set in motion in Augusta the middle of next month when the Republican State Committee meets for the first time in several months. Chairman J. Fred O'Connell of Bangor said the date of the session would be set soon. "We are having this meeting," he said, "to talk over and make tentative plans for the 1940 campaign and particularly discussions which pertain to finances."

YOUR FAVORITE POEM

PRESENT IN ABSENCE
Absence, hear thou this protestation
Against thy strength,
Distance, and length;
Do what thou canst for alteration:
For hearts of trust must settle.
Absence doth join, and Time doth settle.
Who loves a mistress of such quality,
His mind hath found
Affection's ground
Beyond time, place, and mortality.
To hearts that cannot vary
Absence is present, Time doth tarry.
By absence this good means I grin,
That I can catch her,
Where none can catch her,
In some close corner of my brain:
There I embrace and kiss her;
And so I both enjoy and miss her.

The annual prize speaking contest by the sophomore class was held last night. The high school orchestra furnished the music for the occasion. Judges were Hayden Wright, Camden, Milford Payson, Camden High School and George Cunningham, principal of Rockport High School. First prize of the girls was awarded to Ruth Seabury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilman Seabury, her piece, "The Walls." Second was Mary Anastasio, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Anastasio, who recited "Daddy's Little Tin Soldier." For the boys, Robert Chisholm, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Chisholm was first giving "A Message to Garcia" and second honor was given Elmer Havener, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pierre L. Havener, his topic "A Madman's Story." The prizes were awarded by Earle McIntosh, representative of the Kiwanis Club, who sponsored the speaking contest.

The second annual play day given by the High School Girls Athletic Association will be held today at community park, with the following schools represented, Belfast, Camden, Rockport, Thomaston, Warren, Waldoboro, Union and Rockland. Twelve girls are chosen from the 5th and 6th grades to represent their school.

Maude Johnson has been secretary to Principal Blaisdell this week.

N.Y.A. pupils received their May check this week.

Barbara Bodman and Edna Gamage of the advanced typewriting class have completed the work required this year and will receive a diploma for their good work.

This week Joseph Pietroski passed his 45-words-a-minute test in beginners typewriting. He is now ahead of any other of the pupils who are taking beginner's typewriting.

For the last three weeks of school the Junior class of shorthand will work as secretaries to Principal Blaisdell. The highest rank from the class was Mildred Ferrin but she will not go into the office because she is a senior and they want the juniors to get "broken in" for next year. Kathleen Dean will be the first to go in and she will begin next Monday morning.

Mr. DeVeber who has been ill this week with gripe had Mrs. Hart as a substitute.

The second group of Seniors who started their driving lessons this week are getting along nicely. They will drive until the close of school in June.

So Warden Welch Wants To Sublet Some Of His Boarders

Maine's State prison at Thomaston has become so "crowded," Warden John Welch said in Augusta Thursday that immediate steps will be taken to "board out" approximately 75 prisoners in various county jails.

Welch said there were 403 prisoners at the institution which has "normal" accommodations for 280 persons.

"This is the largest number of prisoners we have ever had at any one time," said Welch, "and it has reached the point where we must start boarding out some of them in county jails until the crowded situation is relieved."

Welch said the large prison population had made it necessary to "take care of some of the prisoners in corridor space."

"After the June term of superior courts," he said, "we expect there will be quite a few more added to our population."

The warden said construction of a new cell block was expected to be completed in November. It will house 72 prisoners.

To See Launching

Maine Fire Chiefs Will Have Unusual Privilege In Bath June 17

The unusual experience of witnessing the launching of a U.S. destroyer will be a feature of the social side of the program at the quarterly meeting of the Maine Fire Chiefs' association in Bath June 17. Following a mid-day banquet at 11:45 members, with their wives, will go to the Iron Works where they will be admitted at 1 o'clock and shown special privileges in the way of finding vantage spots for watching the destroyer Hughes as she slides down the ways to dip into the Kennebec river.

Following the launching the chiefs will witness various demonstrations among them the first practical use of the air mask. They will also be given an opportunity of inspecting the plant and of boarding a destroyer, the Sims, tied up at her dock.

The meeting will be called to order at 10 o'clock at Central Fire Station. Mayor Arthur Sewall will deliver the address of welcome, and Chief Joseph W. Randlette of Richmond will respond. Chief Morse will deliver a history of the Bath fire department and Supt. Maurice A. Libby of the Bath Water District will tell of the break and repair in the water main on the bed of the Kennebec river last winter. Movies are also to be shown.

Most of the fire chiefs will spend the afternoon at the Iron Works. Following the launching at 1:35, and the demonstrations at 2 o'clock, will come the inspections at 4 o'clock.

Meantime Mrs. Morse, wife of the chief, will provide entertainment for the ladies. This will include a visit at the Opera House and general sociability in any form the women may elect.

St. George 14, Camden 3
Mills pitched a fine grade of baseball for St. George on the home grounds yesterday, faltering only in the final inning when he allowed Camden three scores, made on two passes, singles by Boynton and Marriner, and an error by that sterling young shortstop Dowling. Camden scored in no other inning and there were only three other innings in which the lads from Megunticook town saw first base.

On the other hand there were only three innings in which St. George failed to score and in all of those innings the home team had men on bases. The chief damage was done in the seventh when a single by Wiley, doubles by Dowling and Baum, a wild throw by Anderson, a pass and a patch, netted St. George five runs.

Against Camden's four singles was the top-heavy batting record of St. George which made 16 for a total of 21 bases.

The onslaught was led by Wiley, who made three singles and a double in five walks to the platter. He also did yeoman service behind the bat.

Boynton covered third sack in fine style. The score:

Morse 13, Rockland 7

Morse High, which likes nothing better than to trounce Rockland teams, hopped onto the local outfit in the third inning yesterday and did not let up until the sixth, by which time it had scored 11 runs to Rockland's one. Carey was the leader in the onset, making three hits and racing around the circuit four times. Rockland made a good finish to reduce the one-sidedness of the contest. The score:

Out In The Second

Butch Wooster Succumbs To Peal's Terrific Smash In Bangor

Setting a dazzling pace and punching with terrific power and a deadly accuracy, Danny Peal, classy New York negro boxer accomplished what no other ringman ever did when he scored a clean cut knockout over the durable Butch Wooster of Rockland in the second round of a scheduled 10 round feature event before a large crowd in the Chateau last night.

The negro, heavily muscled young giant, bounded out of his corner with the speed and grace of a brown panther to answer the opening bell. Wooster, square jawed Rockland warrior was out to meet him and they sparred for an opening. Wooster's right hand smashes went wild in the early fighting as Peal rolled away and countered with jolting jabs to the head.

Unable to score on the negro's head with either hand, Butch centered his attack on the midriff and landed several hard blows. Peal continued to jab to the head and the round ended even with no damage done and with few hard punches landed.

Butch was across the ring with a rush to meet the negro when the second round opened and landed a left swing to Peal's head. Peal stabbed two lefts to the face and missed with a terrific right uppercut.

The courageous Rockland fighter dropped into a semi-crouch and tore into the New Yorker with both fists churning. Peal backed across the ring before the wild barrage and in his own corner took a hard right smash to the body.

Stung and enraged by the blow, Peal cut loose with both fists to the body, then like a flash ripped over a beautifully executed left hook to the jaw. The blow, packing terrific power, traveled less than eight inches and the rugged Wooster dropped to the canvas.

At the count of nine the lion hearted Rockland fighter was back on his feet and gamely punching back with both fists.

They smashed it out at mid-ring and Peal, working his fast jab to the head, drove Butch into a neutral corner. Butch tried to barrage his way out with both hands to the body, but in doing so left his jaw unprotected, and the classy colored boxer again unleashed that crushing left hook for the head.

The blow exploded with crushing force flush on Wooster's chin and he dropped like an oak tree struck by lightning. Completely out, Wooster sprawled flat on his back and was motionless as Referee Dunc MacDonald tolled off the fatal ten—the ten that marked the first knockout ever chalked up against the courageous and popular Butch Wooster. The round lasted exactly one minute and 28 seconds—Bangor Daily News.

IN MEMORIAM
(To Mrs. Rose Monroe who died May 12, 1939).
In memory of a dear old aunt, Who fought the fight of life, Who kept the faith of God above, And conquered all its strife.

A crown awaits her silver head, A throne up in the sky, God's gifts into eternity, For her life long sacrifice. She didn't sink into despair, When pain came rushing on, But turned her eyes to God on high, And prayed Him with a song. Now peacefully she lies, Awaiting the day when she will sing In her home beyond the skies.

IN MEMORIAM
Mother
I wonder if your gentle spirit dwells, By some calm lake beneath a purple night, Where silver rain falls softly in the trees, And song birds rest their weary wings at night.
Perhaps you stand upon a peaceful shore With hosts of loved ones who have gone before, And look far up the star lit heights so high, And see the pale light streams across the sky.
I seem to hear you whisper: "I am free again, Secure at last from sorrow, care and pain, And rest in peace upon this blissful shore. In happiness complete forevermore."

Noted Speakers
Brigadier Seaver and Wife To Address Gospel Meeting Sunday Night

Brigadier Thomas C. Seaver of Ocean Grove, N. J., will be the speaker at the Gospel service, Sunday night at 8 o'clock.

Brigadier Seaver met the Salvation Army in England 40 years ago, and soon after coming to America, he became a member of the organization, and was commissioned an officer. After a series of appointments in field work, Brigadier Seaver became a Social Officer and for a number of years had the oversight of Salvation Army Social Service operations in New England, with Headquarters in Boston, and Hartford, Conn.

Later in his career he was the Divisional officer for field operations and supervised the work in Connecticut, Vermont, and had charge of the Gulf Division in the Southland, with headquarters in Birmingham, Ala. He also supervised the work in Tennessee, Mississippi, Alabama, and Northern Florida.

A later appointment was in charge of the relief operations in New York City and the Metropolitan area. This included an appointment on National Headquarters in New York City.

Mrs. Seaver will speak in the services on Thursday, Saturday and the following Sunday. She has pioneered the work in the Salvation Army in New York and vicinity for a number of years, and during the World War was prominent in Salvation Army War service among the troops in the Boston area.

The past winter Brigadier and Mrs. Seaver have conducted evangelistic campaigns in Palm Beach and West Palm Beach, Orlando, Miami, and St. Petersburg, Fla., and Greenville, S. C.

Brigadier and Mrs. Seaver both hold the long service awards and although have been retired from active Salvation Army service for a year are still serving the organization in many capacities.

Brigadier and Mrs. Seaver have four children, all who are Salvation Army officers, and while in Rockland this coming week will be the guest of their oldest son, Thomas, adjutant, in charge of the local Corps in Rockland.

The automobile registration office will be closed from Saturday noon until Wednesday morning.

All members of American Legion Auxiliary are asked to be at the Legion Hall at 10 a. m. Sunday, to attend memorial services at the First Baptist Church.

The annual athletic banquet of Rockland High School will be held at the Methodist Church next Thursday night. Coach Bill Mansfield is expected to again be the speaker.

Members of Edwin Libby Relief Corps are invited to a picnic June 6 at the South Thomaston cottage of Mrs. Mabel Richardson. Those planning to attend will call Mrs. Blanche Shadle, telephone 632, and members having cars will take passengers.

It is said the reason for sparse blossoms on the forsythia is that when the buds first formed a month ago, the swarms of migrating purple finches got their breakfast, hunches, cocktails and dinner from these appetizing flower embryos. Who would deny them?

Supt. A. F. McAlary attended the May meeting of the New England Waterworks Association in Manchester, N. H. Thursday. Although not within sight of the scene of the submarine disaster at Portsmouth he was in close touch with some of the activities, and found it the sole topic of conversation.

Silence
There are some Americans bewailing the publication of the truth concerning religious persecutions in Germany; they think it is not kind to offer criticism of Hitler and Mussolini. Certainly no true American would allude to, or seek to interfere with anything that merely affected the internal life of any nationality.

But the day has passed when civilized nations will sit in smug complacency and remain silent in the face of outrages that shock the sensibilities of mankind, the impact of which degrades us all, and mocks at all, which men hold dear and the freedom which under God we have attained.

Silence has its place in a library, hospital ward or church, but silence in the face of malice, withers the soul of sympathy. The Sunday Post, Jan. 15 said, "Sadness grips church folks. They mourn the imprisonment of Pastor Martin Niemöller."

"On his 47th birthday, sadness filled the Lutheran Jesus Christus Church in suburban Dahlem, over the fate of their beloved pastor who has been held over ten months in a Nazi concentration camp. Women wept, when reference was made to their minister, whom they were told watched the months pass by in enforced idleness. Several pastors of the Confessional Church participated in the tribute to the Militant Protestant minister."

Silence in the face of tortures inflicted upon Jews and Christians, Protestants and Catholics? There was silence at Pilate's Court by those who should have cried out in protest; silence when the son of God was crucified by those who knew Him best; silence by the sinking towards on the Damascus road. It took courage to hold that service, courage for his church members, courage for their Catholic brethren to attend and participate in it, when it might well have meant banishment for all.

Silence! The very stones in Berlin's streets should cry out at these barbarians.

Morning worship at the Universalist Church is at 10.45 tomorrow. Due to the absence of the minister, Dr. Lowe, Rev. L. A. Walker will be the preacher. The church school will meet in the vestry at noon.

At St. Peter's Church (Episcopal) Rev. E. O. Kenyon, rector, the services for tomorrow will be appropriate for the Feast of Pentecost: Matins at 7.10; Holy Communion at 7.30; church school at 9.30; Holy

The Rockland Pirates will open their baseball season Tuesday afternoon when they tackle the fast Rockport blueberry pickers at Community Park. These games it is hoped will lead up to a successful Twilight League this summer. The Pirates will live up with "Wink" catching and Freddie Lacrosse pitching. Sullivan at first, Johnny Shelm at second, Bill Welsh at shortstop and "Bo" Miller at third. In the outfield will be "Bar" Lord, Cobb Peterson and Manager Frank Winchenbach. The Pirates have lost one game this year and that was to the flashy Maine State Prison nine, the score being 4-2. The Pirates are a lot stronger this year and Lacrosse and Winchenbach furnish one of the best batteries in Knox County. It was this same battery that held the Prison team for eight innings. Lacrosse has improved greatly over last year, having struck out 19 men and allowed but five hits in the 13 innings he has pitched so far this year. Johnny Shelm of the U. S. Coast Guard, Bill Welch, and "Bo" Miller will be new faces in the Rockland lineup this year. Every baseball fan in Rockland who saw "Bo" Miller play last year with Thomaston will admit that he is a fine infielder. The Pirates play in Rockport Sunday.

"Red Check Revue"

"The Red Check Revue" was presented by Mrs. Elizabeth Passon, lecturer of Pleasant Valley Grange at the hall Wednesday night to a capacity filled house. The audience seemed well pleased and each number was given a fine hand. The scene was the interior of a cafe, and the floor show consisted of the numbers already published in this paper.

Special mention should be made of the beautiful voice of young Josephine Buckminster, a member of Owl's Head Grange, who sang "Will You Remember," "Indian Love Call," and the garden scene in which number she sang with Robert Rackliffe who made his first public appearance as a soloist. His rich, young voice was a great surprise to his many friends, who have praised him highly for a grand performance. These two young people made a decided hit and with a lovely chorus or girls—and little Beverly Cogan in the "Polka" was an outstanding feature of this scene.

Each performer was excellent. Valrie MacLaughlin in her "Just a Little Street" was nearly perfect, her voice sweet and clear. "Three Pickaninies of the Juvenile Grange" did a smash hit in "Auntie Skinner's Chicken Dinner," Elwin and Fulton Hickman, Jack Passon and Leona Hickman in "Roll on Texas Moon." Then add to the above such well known performers as Barbara Newbert, Cynthia Brown, Thompson Sisters, Joe Pietroski, Griffin and Crockett who so kindly gave their services for the entertainment.

Our Sacred Hymns

Editor of The Courier-Gazette:—We sing each Sabbath—we who attend church service and have still that deep sense of joy in telling our inmost thoughts through the medium of sacred hymns. We feel this to be most true when winter gives up to mellow softness in the air. 'Tis at this season we realize the apogee of song in birds, in nature and in the emotions of our hearts.

We believe it to be of divine revelation and in spite of our neglect of deeper feelings, these inspired hymns of ancient lineage bring us taught with our best selves. Who has not felt his pulses tingle at the opening words of "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear" that glorious song or old? Or "Oh, Boundless Salvation," "Deep Ocean of Love" and again, "Hark, Hark, My Soul." Angelic songs are swelling o'er earth, green fields and ocean's wave-beat shore.

I could enumerate many of these excellent hymns that no one should allow to escape understanding fealty. We are saddened by the use of uninspired hymns all too often in our sacred services. Leaders have a great responsibility in this regard and should study well the hymns they choose that will give most soulful inspiration.

The Music Clubs of Maine are urging deeper study to forward higher class music and influence the composers of sacred themes to the highest religious thought.

Ranking very high among the High School publications issued this year is "The Exile," which represents the activities of Vinalhaven High School, and which, fresh from the press of The Courier-Gazette, is a magazine which friends of the school will do well to preserve. The edition is dedicated to former Supt. Smalley, a fine portrait of which appears on the cover page. Of him the editors say:

"It is with a true sense of grateful appreciation for many years of loyal service that we dedicate this 1939 issue of The Exile to Edward A. Smalley. We honor our former Superintendent for the 20 years of excellent work which he contributed to the Public Schools of Vinalhaven. His unfailing interest in all phases of the educational development of our pupils is to be commended. We remember his quiet humor, his encouraging words of praise, and his ready co-operation with teachers and parents alike. We recall with admiration, the courage and fortitude which he evinced during the latter years of his service. In closing we wish to extend to Mr. Smalley, our sincerest thanks and lasting esteem."

One for Your Money That's Tuned to Go!

The model illustrated is the Buick Special model 41 four-door touring sedan $996 delivered at Flint, Mich.*

YOU spot it for its beauty—love it for its easy-going gait—buy it for its value. But there's no question at all about where the thrill lies in having this quick-stepping Buick for your own.

Action is its middle name—fleetness out where the roads are clear, nimble agility when the traffic's thick, quick-paced travel from the minute you get aboard.

You've literally got the hurricane harnessed to your service—for with every six inches you travel, a tiny cyclone lets go in the cylinders of this Dynaflex straight-eight to give life and lift to its movement.

Your hand on that wheel guides a big and roomy carriage—yet a finger movement steers it and a hand's weight holds it to the line.

On curves, its Knee-Action actually "banks" the road for you—on gravel, washboard, loose stone, or cobbles, giant coil springs of soft-flexing steel soak up, blot out, erase the bumps.

Your view's the view from seats in first-row-center—there's nothing that goes on you don't take in—stanter through an outlook stepped up as much as 412 extra square inches.

All the time, of course, you ride in style fresh as a breath of tomorrow's dawning. All the time you ride assured that you've bought both smartly and well.

For this roomy, full-powered, silk-en-riding Buick—sprinkled from bumper to bumper with standard equipment that costs you extra elsewhere—is priced down below last year—down below some sixes—down below your own idea of what it ought to cost.

Yes sir, here's the one for your money if you want the car and the value of the year—and it's tuned to go in a big way from the day you take it over.

Why not see your Buick dealer now?

MEMORIAL DAY

TAPS

Upon the quiet Springlike air,
Requiem taps sound everywhere;
For all our soldier dead who sleep,
Where soldier spirits vigils keep.

Remember us! Taps seem to say,
Who bled and died far, far away;
Unnumbered millions of the slain,
That war might never come again.

These call to us from out the grave,
These men, heroic men and brave;
Keep faith with us, who died to build,
The Brotherhood that God hath willed.

We ask no monument of stone,
Such honors never can atone
The wrongs we suffer, if it be
We've failed from hate to set man free.

Requiem taps! The world around
Is heard thy tender tones and sound;
God of our souls hear this our prayer,
For goodwill, friendship everywhere.

Henry Felton Huse
North Haven.

POPPIES
(For The Courier-Gazette)

They who would pay silent tribute,
To the brave who marched away,
Will not fail to buy a poppy,
Veteran made, on Poppy Day.

They are more than just a flower,
Made by those who pay the price
Of grim war, defence of freedom,
Poppies speak of sacrifice.

"Over there," beneath white crosses,
Countless hero soldiers lie,
Close in dreamland sleep enfolded,
They who marched away to die.

Do your bit and buy a poppy,
Little flower brilliant red,
Give new courage to the living
And pay tribute to the dead.

World production of rayon, the leading synthetic fibre used in textile production, is equivalent to one-sixth of the world output of raw cotton. Japan, Germany and Italy require a mixture of rayon in all cotton fabrics manufactured in order to conserve cotton and to lessen the cost of production.

Dorothy Thompson puts her finger on the most significant foreign news and gives it so clearly and with such reasonable deductions that I am proud that she is an American.

It was while Benjamin Franklin was in Paris in 1784 that he first brought out the thought of daylight saving as an economic measure.

"Although she was on pleasure bent, she had a frugal mind." This thought came to me as I saw the greens diggers at work and pleasure.

Volcanic bombs frequently are found near active volcanoes. These objects are hurled from the volcano while in a viscous state and the rotary motion shapes them into spheres.

Watch the fine work of the Garden Club of Rockland through this season and give them help in their effort to beautify the city.

Another nice little tradition comes to thought with word of a scientist that tree rings do not tell the truth of age any more than wrinkles around the eyes tell the age of a lovely woman. The historical meaning of tree rings is just this—lack of moisture or unusual conditions of the atmosphere.

Harvard's popular and delightful Boylston professor of rhetoric and oratory, emeritus, has only recently celebrated his 79th birthday. All who love and honor Charles Townsend Copeland wish for him many more happy years. His interest continues high in desire for the best of work in this country and an adequate recognition by this country of her sons and daughters' efforts, a full literary line of thought.

An experienced gardener never expects to raise vegetables that look like these pictured in the attractive seed catalogue.

Over in Edinburgh Scotland, they do things for cats in grand style. A woman has just left in her will a $2,500 bequest for the care of her pet feline. Keep your courage, beautiful Courier-Gazette Black Cat. Your day may come.

The Boston Y. M. C. A. has just been handed a check for $100,000 and it is comforting as well as inspiring to note that during the past year they have added in Massachusetts over 4,000 members to this great and grand organization. Rockland has lost very much for need of a Y. M. C. A.

"And what" bawled the inter-viewer, "What do you think of the modern girls?"

"Lor, sir" replied the centenarian, "I be a hundred, I be, and I gave up thinking about the girls nigh on ten years ago."

Petticoats again, ladies! They have come, and does one dread those heavy frilled, beruffled and tucked items of expense that bell the gowns out at sides and back! Life is just one change after another of petticoats.

Scorning bay-windowed politicians, Philadelphia baseball fans recently had a charming woman who is official hostess for the Governor throw out the first ball on the first ladies' day in the city's history. That wasn't a bad idea, was it?

Aviators have a few troubles to contend with besides air pockets, storms and fog, not to mention mechanical troubles and proper amount of gasoline. Some of them have head crackings buzzings and pains in the ears, particularly when they make a swift descent. And now comes the Navy dentist who believes the teeth are responsible for most of this trouble. He has perfected a device which aviators with this trouble can keep in their mouths, a rubber splint that keeps the jaws in position.

I wonder if this might be true—that some writer has affirmed that it's the songs they sing, the tales they tell, the dances they do, are what set the people of each part of the vast United States off from the folks of another, more than the distance in miles.

Mrs. Fuller, President, Announces Executive Board Interesting Speakers

The meeting of the Rockland Garden Club was held in the Community Building, Tuesday, with a large attendance. The president Mrs. Donald H. Fuller announced as an executive board for the year Mrs. E. Stewart Orbelton, Mrs. W. O. Fuller, Mrs. Herve Allen, Mrs. Maurice Lovejoy, Mrs. Arthur P. Lamb and the other officers.

The first speaker of the afternoon was Mrs. E. Stewart Orbelton, the subject being "The State Federation of Garden Clubs." The Federation was organized in June 1931 with eight clubs and has increased to 49 clubs with 4900 members. The speaker explained the nature of the work under different departments.

Mrs. Harry Levensaler gave a very interesting paper entitled "Annals of 1939." It will be found in another column.

With intense interest the large attendance heard Mrs. Ralph L. Wiggin's trip to Mexico. The feature of her talk related to the nature of that country. Mrs. Wiggin presented a novel picture of the different species of shrubs, plants and flowers that grew in sections from San Antonio to the crossing of the Tropic of Cancer where mahogany, orchids, Spanish moss, sycamores, cypress and banana trees grew. To the South 10,000 feet above the sea level oak trees, evergreens, three species of pines and junipers were numerous, and at the lower point of the Rockies, varieties of cactus grew upon which the cattle grazed. Very familiar garden flowers which grow in the North, are planted any time of the year, Mexico being a land of perpetual spring.

Miss Caroline Jameson gave a description of the Heistad Indoor Rockery in Rockport, where this club is invited to hold its meeting in June.

The speaker gave a vivid description of the Heistad Home both interior and exterior surrounded by real rock garden of Norwegian scenery. In completing the picture the speaker visualized to the audience its gardens, waterfalls and trickling sounds which was made possible through the artistic skill and suggestions of beauty by the Heistads.

Work of clearing the Grange lot of bushes, leaves and other debris is in progress and a large stump is also being removed.

Members regret to learn of the illness of Mrs. Elizabeth Gregory. The program Thursday night will consist of Memorial Day features, and members are asked to co-operate. Possibly a guest speaker will be present.

GUARDIANS OF OUR COAST

When our lightkeepers and coastguardsmen are doing to protect coastwise shipping by day and by night. The day's moon, from many lonely outposts along Maine's waterfront.

BARNACLES

"The shell is sailing through the sea. But the Past is heavy and hindereth me. The Past hath crusted cumbrous shells. That hold the flesh of cold sea-mells. About my soul. The huge waves wash the high waves roll. Each barnacle clingeth and worketh dole. And hindereth me from sailing!"

Goose Rocks

East and southeast winds and overcast weather are holding us back on our outside work.

We have our new flag pole erected and now fly the colors on pleasant days.

Both keepers have made short visits to their homes this month.

I am glad to hear that Keeper Quinn has been transferred. He must be pleased with his new station after being off shore so long.

Summer people have been arriving on the island the past two weeks. We are always glad to see them come as their boats make it more interesting around here.

All the lobstermen have their traps off here, but report small catches.

The writer had the pleasure of a trip to Rockland in Foy Brown's new boat recently. She is a fine addition to the North Haven fleet.

The assistant keeper has his new motor boat ready for the water.

The keepers are planning on having their annual vacation in June. Burtis Brown of North Haven will substitute during their absence.

The Cuckolds

Mr. Estes and Mr. Flanagan visited this station recently, to install an alarm on the main light.

Erwin Dodge, manager of the First National store at Boothbay Harbor was dinner guest Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Davis. After dinner they enjoyed a sail to Ram Island Light in Mr. Dodge's new boat, and had a pleasant call with Keeper and Mrs. Stockbridge. Many thanks to Mrs. Stockbridge for the lovely slips of plants she sent to The Cuckolds.

Our flower beds are rather slow in growing. The weather being so cold has delayed them.

Mrs. Quinn met Mrs. Harold Seavey ashore at Newagen recently. Mrs. Seavey was spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Norton.

Other recent visitors at the station were Galen Gamage, David Blake, Eben Lundy, all of Newagen.

Mr. and Mrs. Burnham of Ocean Point called at the station recently for lobster traps. Mrs. Burnham is the new postmaster at Ocean Point.

Portland Head

The past week has been filled with a variety—from gay cheering crowds in Canada, to tragedy off the Maine-New Hampshire coast.

Between shivers, our work, radio and newspapers there were few idle moments in a 24-hour day. We have followed along the line of march in Canada and kept an eye on the Royal train, the gay cheering crowds along the route as the King and Queen travelled on and on but most interesting was the Dionne quintuplets on their first automobile and train ride and meeting the King and Queen in their own way, a simple childlike manner.

Next came the awful tragedy when the U.S.S. Squalus submerged off Isles of Shoals and 58 men were trapped on the ocean floor down 240 feet. Work is going on and the submarine will in due time, be brought to the surface. We keep our radio tuned in for every word in connection with the disaster and as we listen our thoughts turn to the tears of joy as the living were brought ashore and we express sympathy to those waiting sorrowfully for the 26 entombed men.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sterling of Rumford were recent guests of Mrs. R. T. Sterling.

F. O. Hill motored to St. George recently to take Mrs. Lucy Robinson home. Mrs. Robinson has been very ill all winter. They were accompanied on the trip by Mrs. Clyde Grant and daughters Patricia and Earlene of Cape Elizabeth.

R. T. Sterling and family entertained at a dinner party Sunday night, their guests being Mr. and Mrs. Walker and family of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hayes of South Portland.

Mrs. R. T. Sterling was guest Wednesday night of Mrs. W. C. Dow of Portland.

Heart disease led all other causes of death in the United States in 1937. Cancer was next with 144,744.
